Steve Roemer's Suit Against
Mary Power and Walter Delhanty—Routine of District Court at Tombstone.

TOMBSTONE, April 10.—The attention of the district court was taken up today the larger portion of the time in the trial of the case of Steve Roemer vs. Mary Power and Walter Delhanty. Roemer seeks to recover the sum of nearly $2,000 alleged to be due him for services rendered while he was acting as administrator of the estate of Paty Delhanty, who died at Benson a few years since. Roemer was instrumental in breaking the will of Delhanty, who had willed the larger portion of his property to one Dr. McCorkle and his little child. Through this effort Roemer saved the estate several thousand dollars, it is claimed. He also had Dr. Caven and Dr. Powell make an examination of the body of Delhanty, as it was surmised that he had been poisoned. The doctors put in a bill of $200 each, which was assigned to Mr. Roemer, and he wishes to recover this amount. He also asks for a judgment for $250 alleged to be due for the holding of a material witness at Benson who was needed in the probate court when the matter of the will was to be taken up. Messrs. English and Bennett are the attorneys in the case for the plaintiff and Ben Goodrich for the defendant. The following jury was selected to try the case: John Kiefer, R. D. Boales, William John Kiefer, R. D. Boales, William Roberts, E. J. Jackson, Pete Butte, R. M. McLean, Jack H. R. J. S. Chambers, Al. Stalm, John Peterson.

In the case of Rochetti vs. Sassoe, judgment was given to the defendant and each party ordered to pay its own costs.

Cora Sweeten, of Pearce, was granted a decree of divorce from James Sweeten on the grounds of cruelty and desertion.

The writ of habeas corpus issued in behalf of O. S. Turner was not resisted by the territory and the prisoner was ordered discharged.

The jury in the case of Nye vs. Peoples has been out since yesterday and so far has failed to arrive at a verdict. The case was brought by Nye to recover the sum of $32 alleged to be due for wages in making repairs on the store building now occupied by the Peoples. The jury, however, are compelled to pay for their own meals in the case already exceeding this amount several times and the expense of the jury is running up at the rate of $36 per day. OPEN ATTACK
ON GOVERNOR
LATEST MOVE

Sturges Moved at the Recent Maricopa County Convention to Eliminate All Praise for Kibbey.

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 9.—An open attack on Governor Kibbey, aimed at the part his administration has taken recently in Maricopa county, was availed at the republican city convention by nothing but the remnant of party harmony that remains intact in these parts.

Opposition to Governor Kibbey and his followers came when C. M. Sturges, one of the Fourth ward delegates, moved that all praise of Governor Kibbey and his administration be stricken from the platform, which had been prepared by City Attorney Prescott and was presented by him in a series of resolutions.

Waxing warm under the collar, Sturges spoke his mind freely, and did not spare the application of the rod to what he looked upon as a wayward child, who was so selfish as to want to be the whole republican party. But for the timely action of some of Governor Kibbey's political opponents, who foresaw the danger that might arise from a decision on the part of the republicans to "throw down" Governor Kibbey, Sturges would have had his way.

Attorney J. M. Jamison, after openly admitting that he had nothing but condemnation for the interference of the administration and its attempt to dictate to the rest of the party, advised that the Prescott resolutions be adopted.

To palliate Sturges and his faction, who were ready to take any drastic step that would place them on record as being against the administration, Prescott interpreted the meaning of his resolutions.

Prescott said they were not intended to place the stamp of approval upon the interference of the federal officeholders, but were simply to put the republicans of Maricopa on record as endorsing the official acts of Governor Kibbey.

Taking from Prescott the resolution "we had framed, Sturges indicated the exact section that he thought should be stricken out. His idea was that city convention should only endorse the city administration and "leave the territorial administration to take care of itself.

Without mincing his words, Sturges said that "Phoenix republicans were treated a few days ago to what follows an attempt of the territorial administration to be the whole show.

Chamberlain's
Cough Remedy

During the past 85 years no remedy has proven more prompt or more effective in its cures of

than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. In many homes it is relied upon as implicitly as the family physician. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Price 25c; large size 50c.

Do Not Trifle
With a Cold

Is good advice for men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Long experience has proven that there is nothing better for colds in children than

Chamberlain's
Cough Remedy

It is a favorite with many mothers and never disappoints them. It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given with implicit confidence.

Croup

When a child wakes up in the middle of the night with a severe attack of croup as frequently happens, no time should be lost in experimenting with remedies of a doubtful value. Prompt action is often necessary to save life.

Chamberlain's

has never been known to fail in any case and it has been in use for over one-third of a century. There is none better. It is pleasant to take and contains no harmful drug. Price 25 cents; large size, 50 cents.

FOUR PER CENT INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

when some of the federal office holders openly attempted to capture the city organization that it might be used as part of the machinery to work up sentiment in favor of an instructed delegation from Arizona to Chicago.

It took the united efforts of half a dozen party peace-makers to convince Sturges that it would be suicidal to have it go broadcast throughout Arizona that the republicans of Phoenix had refused to endorse Governor Kibbey and his administration.

Many who would kille the territorial administration in the dark, but not in public, because it might hurt the party's chances of success, agreed with the mediators long before Sturges could be convinced that for party expediency the administration should be endorsed.

After the appeal to party pride, and an almost tearful prayer that nothing be done to further disrupt an organization that is already torn asunder, Sturges' motion to strike out the section lauding Governor Kibbey failed because of lack of a second.

Had the Sturges motion been put and a secret ballot taken, there is little doubt that it would have prevailed among the republicans last night.

ANNIVERSARY OF
LEE'S SURRENDER

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Forty-three years ago yesterday, which in 1865 fell on a Sunday, General U. S. Grant received the surrender of the army of northern Virginia from General Robert E. Lee at Appomattox Courthouse, Va.

This surrender marked the end of the civil war and the fall of the Confederacy. The south was exhausted, and Lee and his forces reduced by fighting, hunger and disease, and surrounded by overwhelming numbers, had no alternative but to yield. This he did in a way to win the respect of his opponents and the admiration of the world. He was consistent as a soldier to the last, and though given an opportunity by Grant to conduct negotiations for surrender through his officers, he did not put the unpleasant duty on others, but faced his conqueror himself.

The scenes of the surrender have been often described, with varying degrees of accuracy. The accounts which history has accepted as accurate come from officers who attended the two chief actors in the closing scene of this greatest of modern tragedies of war. Nearly all of those who took a prominent part in the epoch-making event at Appomattox have passed away. One of the very few survivors is General Joshua I. Chamberlain of Massachusetts, who commanded the parade of union troops at the surrender of General Lee.

SELECTION OF SECRETARY

By Friday or Saturday the announcement may be expected from the executive committee of the Douglas chamber of commerce and mines of the selection of a secretary. After weeks spent on the proposition, during which time much correspondence has been done in looking up the availability of the various applicants, the committee has eliminated all but two.
